Numb. 3356.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday January 6. to Monday January 10. 1697.

Kensington, Jan. 1.

THE following Addreſs was preſented to His Majeſty by the Honourable the Comptroller and ſeveral of the Students of the Inner-Temple, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Carliſle.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Comptroller and Students of the Inner-Temple.

WE Your Majeſties moſt Loyal Subjects Congratulate Your Safe Return with an Honourable Peace, the Noble effect of Your Majeſties Courage and Conduct.

As an Evidence of our entire Joy for ſo great a Bleſſing, (the more welcome in that it aſſures us of Your Majeſties Royal Preſence amongſt us) we have revived the Antient Revels of our Society.

On this day we take the occaſion to wiſh Your Majeſty a happy new Year, and that it may be the forerunner of many ſucceeding Years of Your Majeſties Peaceable and Undiſturbed Reign over us.

We humbly crave Your Majeſty to accept our moſt ſincere thanks for ſecuring our Laws, which were invaded, and had been totally Subverted, had it not been prevented by Your Majeſties happy Acceſſion to the Crown.

May Your Majeſty, (being freed from the Toiles and hazards of War) enjoy all the Bleſſings of Peace. May You Reign long, not only over the Perſons, but univerſally in the hearts of Your People. And may all Your Majeſties Subjects (as we faithfully aſſure You we will) ever bear to Your Majeſty the firmeſt Allegiance.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Orford in the County of Suffolk, was preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Thomas Felton and Sir John Duke their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

The Humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Commonalty of Your Majeſty's Antient Borough of Orford in the County of Suffolk.

THo' we were not among the firſt that Offered their humble Congratulations to Your Majeſty for Your Safe Return from the Dangers of the War, and for the happy Concluſion of the Peace; yet we beg leave to Aſſure Your Majeſty, we ſhall on all Occaſions be among the moſt forward of Your Loyal Subjects, in giving the Proofs of our ſincere and hearty Affection for Your Royal Perſon and Government, as becomes Perſons, who are truly Senſible of what we owe to Your Majeſty, in having delivered us from that Deluge of Miſery, which by the Subverſion of our Religion and Laws, was breaking in upon us ſome years ago; Preſerv'd to us our Liberties and Conſtitutions, and Supported with great Wiſdom, Conduct, and Conſtancy, the Common Intereſts of Europe.

And as Your Majeſty has done theſe Great Things for us, ſo it ſhall be our Care and Endeavours to make not only thoſe Returns which our Allegiance Requires, but ſuch as are Suitable to the Duty, Zeal, and Gratitude, that are Due from us, to our great Defender and Benefactor.

And whilſt in our ſeveral Stations we Contribute, what lies in us, to Your Majeſty's Service, and conſequently to the publick Welfare; We will not omit our Prayers to Almighty God for Your Majeſty's long and proſperous Reign over us.

Given under our Hands and the Common Seal, this third day of January 1697.

The following Addreſs was Preſented to His Majeſty by the Lord Biſhop of Ely, and ſeveral other Gentlemen of the Iſle.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Lord Biſhop, Bailliff, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Chief Inhabitants of the Royal Franchiſe of Your Iſle of Ely.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

IN a deep Sence of the invaluable Bleſſings we Enjoy under Your Majeſty's Government, we crave leave in Your Majeſty's Preſence, to render our Thanks to God for raiſing You up to procure them to us; And to Aſſure Your Majeſty of the moſt Grateful Returns that Dutiful Subjects can make of Loyal Obedience to You as our Rightful Soveraign, by whom we have been wonderfully Reſcued from Popery and Slavery, and ſince that time no leſs wonderfully preſerved in our Religion and Liberties, and now at laſt Eſtabliſhed in the Poſſeſſion of them by that moſt Honourable Peace which Your Majeſty hath obtained for us.

May Your Majeſty Enjoy the Happy Fruits of the great Toils and Hazards You have undergone for our Safety, in a long, quiet, and proſperous Reign over us, which is and ſhall be the Prayer and Faithful endeavour of us, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

Warſaw, Dec. 31. The King of Poland ſet out from Cracow on the 27th of this Month, but by reaſon of the badneſs of the Weather is not yet arrived here; in the mean time many of the Nobility are come hither, who intend to go and meet the King at ſome diſtance from this place, and great preparations are making here for his Majeſties Reception. The King has ſent ſome Perſons of Quality to endeavour a Compoſure of the differences lately ariſen among the Gentlemen in the Province of Samogitia and has directed ſome of the Chief of them to repair thither. There is yet no day appointed for the meeting of the General Dyet, but every Body concludes it will be at the beginning of March.
